Events in North Africa

Following the recent sharp clashes between the two sides on the one hand and the provisions on the other, the situation in Algeria and Morocco still remains very tense.

The French authorities are carrying out measures to suppress the local population who are taking all the more determinedly in the national liberation struggle. Some military spokesmen give the number of Algerians killed as being ten times higher than 521, the figure of dead reported. But the figures of the French authorities are carrying out measures to suppress the local population who are taking all the more determinedly in the national liberation struggle.
